

Q. 1 What career options are available after choosing the Commerce stream?

ANS. Commerce offers careers in Accounting, Finance, Banking, Taxation, Business Management, Entrepreneurship, and Government services.

Q. 2 What is the difference between B. Com and BBA?

ANS. B. Com focuses on accounting, finance, and taxation, while BBA focuses more on business management, marketing, and leadership skills.

Q. 3 Which course is better for students interested in accounting or finance?

ANS. Students interested in accounting, taxation, and finance generally prefer B.Com.

Q. 4 Can students pursue professional courses like CA, CS, or CMA along with B.Com?

ANS. Yes, many students pursue CA, CS, CMA, ACCA, or other professional certifications simultaneously with their B. Com degree.

Q. 5 What subjects are included in the Commerce program?

ANS.

Q. 6 What are the higher study options after completing B.Com?

ANS. Students can pursue M. Com, MBA, CA, CS, CMA, LLB, Financial Planning, Data Analytics, or other specialized courses.

Q. 7 Is Commerce suitable for students who want to start their own business?

ANS. Yes, Commerce provides knowledge of business operations, finance, taxation, and management, which helps in entrepreneurship.

Q. 8 What is PLM (Professional Learning Method)?

ANS. PLM is a learning approach where students learn through projects, practical activities, case studies, industry exposure, and research work instead of only theoretical lectures.

Q. 9 How is PLM different from traditional teaching methods?

ANS. Traditional teaching focuses mainly on lectures, while PLM focuses on experiential learning, problem solving, and skill development.

Q. 10 How does PLM help students in their career?

ANS. PLM helps students develop communication skills, analytical thinking, teamwork, and practical knowledge, making them more industry-ready.

Q. 11 Will students get practical exposure during the course?

ANS. Yes, students participate in projects, internships, industrial visits, and expert sessions.

Q. 12 What kind of company's recruit Commerce students?

ANS. Companies from banking, finance, accounting firms, corporate houses, consulting firms, and startups recruit commerce graduates.

Q. 13 What facilities are available for students on campus?

ANS. Facilities may include library, computer labs, seminar halls, sports facilities, and modern classrooms.